Round One: Use your words

Team Lambda will start

- Bijay will have 1 min to try to have his team guess as many of his key words as possible by giving verbal clues but not using any part of the key word or a variant of it.
- I will be sending the words to Bijay via Slack.
- Team Eta will be observing.

Team Eta takes their turn

- After the minute is over, Sam will do what Bijay did: try to get get his team to guess as many of his key words as possible.
- Teams will alternate until the words are exhausted.
- I will keep score

Round Two: Use your pictures

- Same format except you will be drawing the term on the whiteboard.
- No words, letters (including in Greek), or numbers permitted except on axis labels.
